

PROJECT HIU

INTERNSHIPS 2024

WHY PROJECT HIU?

We aren't your usual or traditional shark conservation project. We go against the grain, which is working with the men who have been exploited for generations by being taught to fish sharks in exchange for their survival. Something they see no value in, but make the most money doing. What they make actually equals to and ends up just being pocket money to us. Meanwhile the sharks they catch, kill, and sell the fins of, end up being worth thousands of dollars once they make it to China, and they don't even know it.

Rather than demonize them, we approached them with an alternative. They join our team, we use their boats. We use their boats, they don't fish shark. They don't fish shark, but instead they now lead snorkel tours to some of the most beautiful and untouched reefs in Lombok, Indonesia. It's a win, win.

OUR MISSION

Our mission has and will always be to save sharks, however after meeting the men that we not only consider our crew but now, also our family. We now consider our number one mission being to hire as many boats as possible. Not only for the purpose of saving sharks, but also with a new purpose of saving our crew.

“These men deserve an income free from the threat of prosecution, and the many dangers they face spending weeks away from their families. They deserve a secure future that doesn't rely on the fishing of these apex predators. In a rapidly changing ocean, our approach must change too. The goal of Project Hiu is to improve conditions above and below the surface, and enforce the idea that one person, and one shark fishermen, can make a difference.”

EXPERIENCE

Who can participate in our internships? Anyone!

However, if you joined Project Hiu previously on our week long trips, or even day trips? Then you'll have first grabs at a new experience you could possibly join us on!

With our new internship opportunity, we are inviting past tour participants and new comers to join Project Hiu on a more in-depth and hands on experience.

Our interns will have the opportunity to help out in a number of areas:

Short-Term Internships will be helping out in areas such as:

- Shop operations
- Tour Leading
- Marketing
- Fundraising
- & More

Long-Term Internships will allow participants to gain a more one on one experience with both the General Manager and Madison Stewart herself.

LENGTH

Short-term internships can last anywhere from 2 weeks to 1 month.

Long-term internships can last anywhere from 1 month to 2 months.

TYPICAL DAY AS AN INTERN

Activities Include (and are not limited to, and will vary):

- Day Trip operations running from 7am till 3pm (after long days such as this, the rest of the day is left to you to enjoy).
- Shop operations running from 11 am till 10pm (Some days will consist of being in the shop, whether to help with sales, organization of the store and merch, etc).
- Days with no scheduled trips can consist of local marketing, Island visits, fin trade documentation, exploration trips, and more.
- Off days can consist of visiting some popular surf beaches, planned intern trips around the island of Lombok, or spent relaxing.

SHORT VS. LONG TERM INTERNS

Short-Term Internship

Activities for Short-Terms Include:

- Shop Operations
- Secondary Management of Crew & Boats
- Guiding Tours
- Community Outreach
- Community Marketing & Fundraising
- Documenting the Shark Trade
- Photography (Marketing & Social Media)
- Future Development with Week Long Tours and Day Trips.

Long-Term Internship

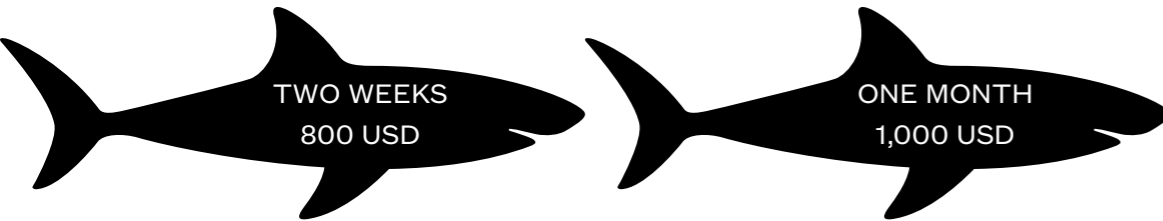

Activities for Long-Terms Include:

- Management of Short-Term Interns & Employees
- Management of Crew & Boats
- Management of Shop Operations
- Management of Tours (Guiding and Control of trips)
- Direct Handling and Communication with Fishermen
- Marketing and Social Media Development
